Food

Your puppy has been eating RAWBBLE. We've tested the food ourselves, and the dogs here absolutely love it. We feel good about the ingredients and the testing BIXBI does to ensure nutrition and safety. If you would like to learn more, the BIXBI website (www.BIXBIpet.com) has a lot more information.

For the dry kibble, please use ONLY the four items listed here (Wingetarian, Landatarian, Liberty Rancher's Red and Liberty Game Bird Feast). These products contain ancient grains and are the highest quality and best suited for your new puppy.

RAWBBLE also comes in a convenient and healthy freeze-dried form in 7 varieties. A balanced diet, topper or treat, RAWBBLE Freeze-Dried can do it all with 95-98% meat, organs and bone in a limited ingredient recipe. Packed with nutrients and flavor, all animal proteins are sourced in the USA except for our French duck and New Zealand lamb.

Virbac- Rawhide C.E.T. chews need to be purchased at your vet or revivalanimalhealth.com or Chewy.com.

This is a chew that I have around the house at all times.

\ when it comes to treats, stay simple and make natural choices to avoid digestive upset. Be cautious of WHERE treats are from and only choose products that were made in either the USA, Canada or New Zealand. (milk-bones, etc are an example of what NOT to get). **

Human Foods (that I use & trust)

Plain Yogurt- preferably organic or a brand you trust. ¼ cup per day when needed for tummy regulation.

Probiotics- this can be helpful with digestive upset, please check in with me for an update of products.

Canned Pumpkin- this can be a helpful additive to your puppies kibble as it is getting adjusted. Just one tablespoon scooped on top should do the trick.

Sweet Potatoes- microwaved and chopped up these work great as a healthy and cheap treat for you to add in the mix. They love them dehydrated as well. Great source of fiber.

Hard Cheese- shredded on top of kibble or in cubes this is another great cheap treat you can add into their diet.

Whatever the case, whether crate training, fireworks, or perhaps a thunderstorm, rest assured this dog anxiety solution will be there to help. *Let them know I sent you!
Collars and Leashes- A rolled leather collar seems to do the best not to cause matting. Another brand that I use on a lot of my dogs is 'Walk-e Woo'. Leash is your preference; I strongly discourage retractable leashes as they are dangerous for both the puppy and humans!*

Walk E Woo- Absolutely love this company for all things collars and leashes!

Harness- Ruffwear or similar brand. Great for full body control, picking up your puppy when necessary, clicking it into the seatbelt in the car, walking etc. (training to walk with a collar only is not recommended as it can damage your puppies neck)

Shampoo & Conditioner- Isle of Dogs or Biosilk (for dogs) or Nature's Miracle are my favorite! Doodles have sensitive skin just like us! You can order these brands online at Chewy. Com or Amazon.com.

Greyhound Comb- I like this product because it has a wide and narrow end. Perfect for day to day combing of your doodle.

Chris Christensen T-Brush 27mm- This has been the best all around doodle brush that I have found. If you brush your doodle regularly with this you will be able to prevent matting.

Curved blunt tip scissors- I recommend these scissors for hard to reach hairs on your doodles face. The curve and blunt tips make it possible to trim your dog safely!

Nail Clippers- Human nail clippers will work for the first 3-4 months old but after that find a pair that works best for you.

I strongly recommend playing with your dogs toes so that clipping and grooming is not a stressful thing for your doodle.

*Metal Dog Bowls- Any brand!
Strongly suggest using metal bowls to limit bacterial growth overtime.
Plastic & other materials can leave chemicals in the food & harbor bacteria. *sterilizing daily is highly encouraged****

Please remember that all products I have listed are not only what your puppy is used to, but also the quality of food that is required in my health contract. Almost all these products you can order online and at high end dog food stores such as Chuck & Don's or Kriser's.
